District Overview:

- Robberies continue to be a problem, albeit at a much slower pace than in previous weeks. One each in four different beats.
- A homicide in the King Farm community ended in an arrest on Sunday 6/4. See A4
- Vehicle-related thefts are on the rise, mostly involving unlocked vehicles.

A1 Beat:

- On Sunday 6/4 around 1840 hours, an adult female exited a bus at Randolph Road and Dewey Road and began walking when a male grabbed her from behind in the 11800 block and dragged her into a wooded area. Displaying a gun, the suspect assaulted the victim. The victim pretended to pass out, and the suspect fled.
Suspect: H/M 35 years, 5'8" to 5'10", crew cut, white tee shirt, cammo shorts, gold chain
- Around 0815 hours on Tuesday 6/6, a resident in the 12200 block of Selfridge Road was confronted inside her home by a male with a knife who demanded money. The suspect allowed her to leave the home, where she contacted the police. Nothing was taken.
Suspect: H/M 20-30 years, 5'8", thin, black hat, black jacket, red multi-colored polo shirt, knife
- The residential burglary on Veirs Mill Road was domestic-related. The resident's brother was arrested on the scene.

A2 Beat:

- On Thursday 6/1 just after midnight, an adult male walking in the 12900 block of Twinbrook Parkway from the Twinbrook Metro was jumped by four suspects, one of whom struck him with a blunt object. The victim was punched and kicked while on the ground and his backpack, phone, and wallet were stolen. The suspects were all B/Ms, 18-20 years wearing black tee shirts.
- The aggravated assault on Tuesday 5/30 around 2300 hours in the 2200 block of Veirs Mill Road involved a knife and the victim and suspect were known to each other. There were no injuries and one arrested on the scene. [RCPD]
- On Friday 6/2 around 1230 hours, an adult male accepted an invitation from a group of four H/Ms to go drinking in a wooded area near Twinbrook Parkway and Veirs Mill Road. The victim engaged in an argument with one in the group and was punched several times. The victim managed to run away and, when he turned, he saw one in the group with a knife. They did not follow the victim.
- A residential burglary occurred in the 1000 block of Crawford Drive between Thursday 6/1 at 1030 and Friday 6/2 at 0140 hours. The window was the point of entry. Property was taken. [RCPD]
